

CLOAKS—STONE & THOMAS.

Stone & Thomas.

IT TOOK NERVE!

And a pretty good bank account (fortunately we had both) to buy the entire production of three of the largest New York Cloak Houses, especially this season. The time will never be when this house will not buy new, choice seasonal goods at 25c to 40c on the dollar. That's the way these Cloaks were bought and that's the way you can buy them from us. Buying the entire production enables us to offer a selection only possible to be offered by the largest Eastern retail stores. A WORD OF WARNING:—In some cases there are twenty-five Cloaks of a kind, in others there are over 200 of a style. The goods are here at what they advertised for, but they will be sold faster than Cloaks were ever sold hereabouts.

AN ELEGANT RECEPTION

Given by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frank Last Evening.

The elegant residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frank, on Twelfth street, was the scene of a brilliant social event last evening. The reception, which was held from seven o'clock until midnight, was complimentary to Miss Ida Mae Frank, of Chicago, and Mr. G. E. Beekman, of Boston, whose engagement was formally announced recently. In honor of the occasion the parlors were beautifully trimmed with flowers and greenery, yellow chrysanthemums and smilax being the prevailing features; the mantels were wildernesses of beauty banded with flowers. In addition on all sides was arranged a profuse display of palms, and potted plants were effectively used. During the hour set for receiving the house was constantly crowded with friends of the host and hostess and the happy couple. All of the guests were received in the front parlor. Mrs. W. H. Frank was handsomely attired in black lace, en train, with diamond ornaments. She was assisted by Miss Ida Mae Frank, in white brocade satin, lace trimmings, diamond ornaments; Miss Bessie Gutman, yellow faille, chiffon and violet trimming; Miss Sara Horkheimer, yellow crepe, with roses; Miss Millie Stein, pink brocade silk; Miss Bessie Beekman, black silk, and Miss Rose Rosenburg, white silk.

In the dining-room a charming coterie of young ladies in full evening dress served refreshments. These were Miss Hattie Reed, in white silk; Miss Dianthe Emsheimer, light blue silk; Miss Jennie Emsheimer, yellow crepe; Miss Cora Gutman, nilo green silk, and Miss Mollie Baer, in green silk.

Music was furnished by the Premier Banjo and Guitar club.

A charming feature of the affair was the presentation of a number of valuable presents as tokens of esteem and love to Miss Frank, whose captivating manner has made her extremely popular during her visit here. Mr. Beekman, who also shared the general congratulations, is one of the leading brokers of Boston, occupying the enviable position of vice president of the American Ticket Brokers' Association. The affair throughout was greatly enjoyed by all who were present, and was pronounced one of the finest social gatherings of the season.

In the Circuit Court.

In Judge Paul's court yesterday in the case of John E. Wilkie vs. the City of Wheeling, the demurrer was argued and taken under advisement. The same action was had in the case of Park Weir vs. city, Ph. Hildebrand vs. city, Herman Kruger vs. city and Patrick Campbell vs. city.

In the case of Albert Klinkler vs. the Wheeling Iron and Steel Co., a demurrer was made, argued and submitted.

In Judge Campbell's court, in the case of S. D. Elson, assignee, vs. Wood Bros. Planing Mill Co., the demurrer was overruled because no grounds were assigned, and the case was set for trial December 22.

A Big Reduction Offered.

The scale of wages at the Wheeling steel works, Benwood, expires January 1. The company has presented a new scale for the consideration of the employees, which is said to make a reduction in nearly every workman's wages, the reduction varying from 30 to 45 per cent. The men met last night to consider the proposed scale, but if any final action was taken it could not be learned last night.

Licensed to Wed.

Clerk Hook yesterday issued marriage licenses to the following named parties:

Albert Mueller, aged 23, and Catherine Dietrich, aged 20, both natives of Germany and residents of Martin's Ferry, O.

Charles M. Davis, aged 25, and Mary A. Henderson, aged 21, both of Ohio county.

A Narrow Escape.

On Wednesday evening Mr. A. B. Pierce was going to his home on Fork Ridge from Moundsville when his horse ran away and threw him. He received several cuts and bruises, and was also kicked by the animal. Though in a serious condition, Mr. Pierce is not dangerously injured. It was a narrow escape.

An Old Lady Dies Suddenly.

Miss Mary Marling, of near Greggsville, was found dead in her chair Tuesday morning. At the coroner's inquest it was decided that the primary cause was exhaustion from a bad cold, and the remote cause was old age. She was aged seventy-five years. She will be buried to-day at the West cemetery.

MR. O'KANE THE MAN.

His Nomination for Postmaster Sent to the Senate.

Yesterday a telegram came from Washington City saying that the President had sent to the senate the nomination of M. J. O'Kane to be postmaster at Wheeling. This did not occasion much surprise, because it was pretty well understood to have been decided on long ago. Somehow people had expected the nomination to be made about December 20, and its coming now was the only surprise.

As lately as Tuesday, however, there were bets made that Mr. O'Kane would not be the man. This made him and his friends a little uneasy, but they feel better now.

The main interest centres in speculation as to who will be the chief clerk. Great pressure was brought on behalf of George Baird, but it seems to be generally understood that Eugene Z. Hanke will be the man.

Mr. O'Kane last came into prominence as the defeated Democratic candidate for the legislature, who was seated by a partisan house in a resolution reciting that S. G. Smith had a majority of the votes cast. By a recent decision in the supreme court of appeals, ending the proceedings to seat O'Kane, though defeated, the county is let in for a pretty sum of money in the way of costs. But Mr. O'Kane won't care when he is P. M.

The Modern Mother

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.
